

HUNGARY'S CABINET FACES A REJECTION

Peace Conference Not Likely to Approve Government of Archduke Joseph.

SOCIALISTS HOLD ALOOF

Rumania Warned That It Will Not Be Allowed to Strip
Magyar State.

PARIS, Aug. 16.—It is unlikely that the new Hungarian Government appointed by Archduke Joseph, Prince Regent, with Stephan Friedrich as Premier, the last Lovassy, who was Premier of the last Cabinet, as Foreign Minister, and Baron Sigmund Perenyi as Minister of the Interior, will be accepted by the Entente Allies.

The remainder of the Cabinet, as announced to-day, follows:

Minister of Finance, Dr. Johann Grunert; War, Gen. Chulitzer; Justice, Georges Balfoury; Agriculture, Stefan Szabo; Religion and Education, Karl Huszar; Health, Dr. O. Sillery; National Minorities, Prof. Beyer; Minister without portfolio, Stefan Hallen, Johann Mayer and Count Paul Potuch. The Cabinet took oath to Archduke Joseph on Friday.

[Three places were left for the Socialists, but Associated Press despatches from Budapest state that Paul Potuch, the Socialist leader, and other Socialists announced to-day that they would refuse to enter the new Government unless Archduke Joseph gave up the regency.]

Archduke Joseph, replying to the statement, is reported by the Temps to have said that he would retire from political life as soon as a Cabinet was definitely constituted if necessary, and that in any case he would not exact for himself rights which might give rise to the belief that he wished to restore the monarchy.

The Temps says that Martin Lovassy, Foreign Minister in the new Cabinet, is known by his compatriots as a friend of the Entente. The newspaper says he always sought to open Hungary to French intellectual culture.

Andrassy for Old Parliament.

The new Ministers expect to hold on until a Parliament is elected, leaving the Ministries of Commerce, Welfare and Food open for the Socialists whenever they are willing to come in, although naming temporary occupants for these posts.

Count Julius Andrassy, Foreign Minister in the recent Lovassy Cabinet, has expressed himself in favor of recalling the old Parliament immediately, instead of trying to hold elections.

The new Ministers, when they took the oath, swore to serve so long as there is no constitutional government, and also to recognize Archduke Joseph as "royal prince regent" until then.

A formal denial that the Rumanian Government favored the return to power in Hungary of Archduke Joseph was issued by the Rumanian Press Bureau. It says in part:

"The Archduke's violent hostility toward the Rumanians is very well known. As commander of the Austro-Hungarian troops in Transylvania he permitted the soldiers to commit atrocities on the Rumanian population. When there was talk of deposing King Ferdinand the Archduke was the principal Austrian candidate for the Rumanian throne."

Rumania will not be permitted to strip Hungary, according to the draft of the Supreme Council's reply to the last note from Bucharest, which was completed at yesterday's meeting of the council. The text of the reply follows:

"The Peace Conference, without reverting to a certain number of points which call for correction, notes with satisfaction on its part the Rumanian declaration that it intends to work in agreement with the policy which the conference adopts in Hungary. It interprets this declaration as an indication that Rumania, as a State participating in the Peace Conference, intends to conform to the decisions of the conference communicated through the military mission delegated to Budapest by the Supreme Council."

Insists on Non-Interference.

"Directions sent three times by the conference to the mission of allied Generals and communicated to Bucharest have defined explicitly and in detail the present policies of the allied Powers toward Hungary, the disarmament of Hungarian troops, the maintenance of order with the smallest possible number of foreign troops, the revictualing of Hungary, and the abstention from all interference in the internal politics of Hungary, preserving for that country a free expression of the national will."

The Supreme Council insists on the fact that final recovery of war, railway or agricultural material or of cattle, etc., cannot occur at present. According to the principles of the Peace Conference, accepted by all the Allies and applied in particular in the treaty of peace with Germany it is the right of the assembly of the allied and associated Powers alone to fix the reparation to be made by Hungary and determine upon its distribution among interested States.

Neither the Rumanian army nor the Rumanian Government has the right itself to fix Rumania's share of assets or of all kinds belonging to Hungary being a pledge held by the allied Powers in common."

Delivery of the Rumanian note, in which the Bucharest Government asserted that the Rumanians in confiscating property in Hungary were "merely getting back their own property" and insisted that the armistice of November, 1918, "no longer exists," was delayed, according to a statement made by the Rumanian delegation to-day, because of its insistence on the difficulty experienced in deciding it. MISSING GIRL FOUND QUEEN OF GYPSIES

Abducted Three Years Ago,
Is Rescued in Newark.

Louis Mitchell, a resident of Richmond Hill, has found his daughter Louise, 18, who three years ago, according to the story she told yesterday, was kidnapped by a band of gypsies, made a "queen" and forced to marry the son of a gypsy chief. She appeared in the Federal Building in Brooklyn in her gypsy regalia with her father and asked Peter McKee, Assistant District Attorney, to help prosecute her abductors.

The girl said she was stolen when her family lived in Roanoke, Va. She traveled with her enforced companions through many of the Southern States, playing the art of fortune telling and entering fully into gypsy life. Before the band turned north she married Joe John, son of Gregory John, the chief. They have a two-year-old son, she said.

The band reached Newark several days ago and purely by chance Louise was found by her sister, Mr. Mitchell was notified at once and the girl was taken to her home. When she disappeared from the gypsy camp Gregory John was seized with fear and gathered his band for the road. They left Newark at night and have not yet been found.

Assistant District Attorney McCabe referred the girl to the Federal authorities in New Jersey for lack of jurisdiction in the case.

Olive, a policeman, who was injured in the war and is still a patient in Fox Hills Military Hospital. They boy left his home at 4 Gramere avenue, Rosbank, Richmond, on May 29 with a chum with whom he announced he was "going to see the world." The chum lost courage at the last moment and remained home. Olive has not been heard from.

Samuel Hecht, a Boy Scout, 15, escaped from the Montefiore Home Country Sanitarium at Bedford Hills on August 5. He sent his father a postal asking for $1.25, but the letter with the money was not taken from the post office addressed. The father is at a loss to explain his son's disappearance. There are five other children in the Hecht family.

Milton Silverman, 14, has been missing from the home of his uncle, H. M. Wertheim, 944 Tiffany street, The Bronx, since Monday. The police learned that he set out with two other boys from Public School No. 52 to "go West" and become a cowboy. They left the city on bicycles with $14.

TINOCO IN JAMAICA

Costa Rican Ex-President Says
Assassins Sought Him.

By the Associated Press.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 16.—Federico Tinoco, who recently abandoned the Presidency of Costa Rica and fled the country, arrived here to-day on board the steamship Zaca, on his way to Paris. He said several attempts had been made to assassinate him, and that his brother Jose, Minister of War, was shot in the back of the head the night before the President left and died later.

Frank Jimenez, Costa Rican Minister to France, who was in the party, said the Nicaraguan Government was responsible for the assassination of the Minister of War and for repeated attempts on the latter's life. He added that Nicaragua was likewise responsible for the successive revolutions to overthrow the Costa Rican Government, which in the past had been put down successfully.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Juan Baptista Quirós, a banker, assumed office as acting President of Costa Rica August 12, according to advices received to-day by the State Department. Press despatches from San Salvador under date of Thursday said Julia Acosta had been named provisional President.

The State Department's advices said Quirós had appointed a cabinet, issued a proclamation promising reforms and liberty, and released several prisoners. The police, however, suppressed a movement for elections, and armed guards were patrolling the streets of the capital, San Jose, when the despatches to the department were filed August 13. The President's proclamation was said to have made no reference to elections.
